As we enter the into the summer's heat and humidity, the words of Jesus in the Gospel really bring refreshment to us: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." We hear and see the word "refreshment" in many forms of advertisement such as beverage commercials, "get away" vacations to refreshing beaches and hot spots, or just by sitting with the air conditioner. When we experience these invitations, we can feel a longing to say: "Ahhh!! Yes!! Just what I need!!" While beaches, beverages and vacations and all the good things that summer can offer are wonderful, there is another kind of refreshment that we need that often goes unnoticed: rest for the soul!! As modern people we live in a very rest-less world. Time-management becomes our top priority because these are so many things we must get accomplished: Our "to-do" list becomes longer and heavier. Our medical community is finding that many people don't get nearly enough sleep needed for health. Our sleep clinics in hospitals are overflowing with people who need assistance in getting sufficient sleep. I wonder if the reason is that we are living mostly from "the outside-in" that is, trying to meet so many expectations and demands placed upon us that are really stretching our human capacities? Society demands so much, e.g., that we should have a certain amount of income in our savings, that we should be taking certain medications and vitamins for health, and on and on. When we can't meet these expectations we often feel disappointed with ourselves and a lack of fulfillment in our lives. It's not that we shouldn't strive to become better, healthier people or do noble deeds for others. It's just that all God expects of us is to simply be "human." He wants to guide our lives, give us peace and hope, and every once in a while to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." He wants us to be mindful of our own beauty & goodness since we are made in His image. When I visited Assisi years ago, I saw the "carceri" or little rooms up in the mountains that St. Francis used to escape to every few months. He would spend some time in these little cottages to pray and just enjoy the beauty of the mountains. From this experience he received grace and energy to come back down to the city to help the poor, and spend time with his brother friars in fraternity. Being alone with God for a while helped St. Francis live a balanced life: to let God be God and himself be a simple human being. So as we enter into the midst of summer, I invite you dear parishioners to follow the example of Francis and spend some time alone with Jesus in prayer. I guarantee that you will feel refreshed and filled with the joy of God's spirit!!

~ Fr. John

The National Pilgrim Virgin Statue of the USA is one of the original 25 blessed by Pope Paul VI. Bishop Venancio personally presented this Statue to Bishop John J. Carberry, later Cardinal Carberry of St. Louis, on November 12, 1967 at St. Joseph Cathedral in Columbus, Ohio. This Statue travels throughout the United States and its Territories, spreading the Message of Fatima and bringing the graces of Fatima to the American people. It is considered one of the most beautiful statues of Our Lady in America.

The statue will be visiting several parishes over the summer. Next week, the statue will be at St. Joseph Cathedral on July 19th with viewing from 12-6pm.

St. Elizabeth Seton in Bedford will also be sponsoring the World Apostolate of Fatima National Pilgrim Virgin Statue on Wednesday, July 26th from 5-7pm. The Rosary will be recited at 5:00 pm; Mass will be at 5:30 pm; The statue's Custodian will be speaking after Mass followed by veneration.

THE 2017 NH CLIMATE PILGRIMAGE
SUNDAY, JULY 8 - SATURDAY, JULY 15

A group of Friends (Quakers) have been called to walk between power plants in New Hampshire this summer. They invite anyone who is interested to join them. You don't need to be a Quaker, while this pilgrimage will be Quaker-led, it is open to all. Not a march or rally, this will be a spiritual pilgrimage where we explore our grief over impending climate cataclysm, listen to the ways that God is calling us to be faithful in these times, and declare the joy that we have found in following the path of transformation. The website is climatepilgrimage.org and by clicking on 'logistics' you will come to a page showing the map of the pilgrimage, the general logistics and daily schedule, along with a route description listing the locations of the overnight lodgings. The Climate Pilgrimage will come to Manchester with a stay over on Thursday, July 13 at the Brookside Congregational Church and then proceed to Hooksett.
