When we have a friend in whom we can confide, we know that this person is truly a gift from God in our lives. We feel comfortable with this person, trusting that we can tell him anything about ourselves and still feel accepted. No matter how small or dark a secret, we know that his love for us has not lessened one bit. How can we determine this? By the look in his eyes. Our eyes never lie! I can remember friends, confessors, counselors and teachers whose eyes spoke of acceptance and support when times were challenging. And maybe you have too. When that happens, we believe that we have been gifted by God's love! In today's Gospel, Jesus' eyes speak volumes about God's love and acceptance for 3 people who were in desperate need. There was the older woman who had been afflicted with hemorrhages for 12 years; there was the synagogue official in agony over his dying daughter; and there was the young girl aged 12 who was already dead when Jesus had arrived. When Jesus' eyes, which are God's eyes, looked upon these three people in need, miracles happened! The older woman was cured of her affliction; the official's urgent plea to have his daughter healed was granted; the little girl was raised from death. This was all because of the way Jesus' eyes looked upon them. We might be thinking that this is a just a "lovely story" from the past in the Gospel. But guess again! Jesus' eyes are still beholding the suffering and needy people of the world today. And His eyes are upon us as well! How so? Because He uses the eyes of His disciples as His vehicles in spreading God's acceptance and love. Jesus needs your eyes! So remember to think about how you use your eyes as you view the suffering of other people: are they eyes of suspicion, judgment, resentment, or indifference? Or are they eyes of mercy, tenderness, acceptance, and love? Quite frankly, no matter what our political opinions may be, or what personal outlook on life we may have formed, our eyes are the windows of our souls: they tell us if God is living inside us or not! So take good care of your spiritual eyes!! If blurry, make an appointment with the Holy Spirit. ~ Fr. John

Please remember in your prayers Edwina DeSimone who was called to her eternal rest and the glory of the Resurrection promised by the Lord. May the Holy Spirit bring peace and comfort to her loved ones.
