PARISH OFFICE & MASS SCHEDULE

Fr. John will be on vacation next week. The Parish Office will be closed July 6th - July 10th. There will also be NO weekday Masses during the week. For your convenience, here is a list of surrounding parishes and their weekday Mass schedule:

St. Francis of Assisi: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, 9am; Sacred Heart: Monday - Thursday, 8am; St. Anthony: Monday - Thursday, 8am; St. Anne-St. Augustin: Tuesday, Thursday & Friday, 8:30am; St. Catherine: Monday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday, 9am; St. Hedwig: Tuesday & Thursday, 8am; Parish of the Transfiguration: Monday - Thursday, 8am; St. Joseph Cathedral: Monday - Friday, 7am; St. Pius: Monday - Thursday, 8am; St. Marie: Monday - Friday, 8am.

The Adoration Chapel will be opened for its regular hours and the weekend Masses will be at the usual times.

Let us pray for these special intentions: For all our parishioners that are homebound and in nursing homes; for all our parishioners, family and friends that are struggling with illness or recovering from surgeries. We also pray for: Esther Shea, Mark P, Joe Carnevale, David Rattigan, Taylor Wright, Irene Allard, Donna Mullen, Christine Wood, Joseph Belliveau, Jaime Dupuis, MTS, Paul St. Jean, BRD, Krissy B., Moe Labbe, RFG, Bill Puglisi, Chloe, Georgia Gancarz, Judy Sullivan, Bob Theodorou, Barbara Zahn, Ray Pascua, Mark Siraco, Merlena & Albert Ancheta, Dave & Sharon Brock, Jonathan Camire Jr., Savannah, Acilda Dachowski, Jeanine Larochele, Gail Lemieux, Norma Lemire, Claire Smith, Dan, Patricia & Collette O'Connor, Joseph, Audrey Baker, Ken West, Richard Mendolia, Delia Huertas, Michael Sufat, Tylia Racicot, Allan & Kathy Charest, Janice Beaudin, Bella Donoso, Christine Vigneault, Myriam Siraco, Pauline Cote, Susan Czajka, Peter Chiano, Renee McAllister, Rick Boisjolie, Pauline Lavigne, Jim Sullivan, Brody, Eric Rollins, Thora Silva, and Terry Sylvain.

Children are the great "levelers" In our lives: they have a great ability to get to the heart of the matter. I remember the time little Theo watched our live-streamed Mass from his home when he was a toddler. When he would see me saying the Mass on TV, he would run up to the screen and point me out to his parents, as if he was saying: Hey, there's Fr. John!" He was proud of himself that he could find me. As he got a little older, his parents took him to live Mass for the first time. Now he could see me on the pulpit instead of on TV. However, at first, he couldn't understand how I could be in two places at once! So, when his parents pointed out to him that I was really the same guy that he saw on television, he said "No!" "I see Fr. John back at home on tv, so how can he be here too? That can't be him!" Well of course, it gave everyone a big laugh, but Theo was quite serious; he was going to trust his own experience until proven otherwise. Children are great because they get right to the heart of the matter. They are happily unencumbered by the complexities of adulthood. They approach things with honesty and simplicity that cut through the rationalizations and justifications we adults make to explain things. They are not afraid to express their truth as they see it! In today's Gospel, Jesus acknowledges the innocence and directness of children when He praises the Father: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to little ones." I have heard many first-time parents humbly admit that their best teachers in parenting are their own children. Their little ones help Mom and Dad realize the deep reservoir of love that they possess and their ability to give, teach and care for these lives God has entrusted to them. Doesn't it stop us adults in our tracks! We know how to water down the truth, give politically correct answers, find ways to get our own way, as our regular practice. Jesus would rather us have the simple honesty and directness of children, because there are no hidden agendas involved. But we need to also remember that the "little ones" in today's Gospel include not just children. Many of those who care or have cared for someone living with a terminal illness, a chronic medical condition, or a physical or mental disability experience times, when they, the caregivers, become the "cared for". On this Independence Day, let us give thanks to our Father for the good people in our lives; both children and parents!

St. Theresa of Lisieux Adoration Chapel

CHAPEL HOURS: Tuesdays, Thursdays,
 Fridays & Saturdays
 9am - 7pm

LIVESTREAMED 24/7 on our website

OPEN HOURS: Saturdays, 3pm;
Temporary coverage needed for Thursdays at 2 & 3pm (July).

We do need substitute adorers! If you're interested in becoming an adorer, please call Lisa in the office. If you can't commit to every week, but would like to cover as a substitute, that would be very helpful. We always need subs to cover sick calls/vacations, etc.

Anyone can visit Jesus in the Eucharist when our chapel is opened; you don't have to be an assigned adorer. If you've never been to our chapel, we encourage you to come and visit. Our world needs prayers, our hearts need the Eucharist.

"Jesus is not an idea or a feeling or a memory. Jesus is a living 'person' always present among us. Love Jesus present in the Eucharist." (St. Pope John Paul II - 1978)

Congratulations!

Thank you for supporting this fundraiser for our parish. It's a fun and easy way to help the parish. A new club has begun. Numbers are still available to play. Cost is $20 at ticket.

Captains: Lisa (parish office) 622-5445, Gloria Pilotte 623-8173, or Terry Sylvain 669-2582.

If you would like to help and become a Captain, call the parish office and we'll explain the process.

Plans are under way for our Fall Festival on October 17th. It takes the whole parish to make this a successful event.

Help The Fall Festival "Spin the Wheel"

The Social Committee is preparing for the Fall Festival. This month we are collecting "breakfast items" for our Spin the Wheel for Groceries game. These are non-perishable things which have BEST BY dates after November 1, 2026.

MONTH OF JULY COLLECTION:

Items Needed: paper products such as napkins, paper towels, toilet paper, tissues etc.

There is a container in the back of the church to place these items. Thank you! We appreciate your support!

The Food Pantry is in need of recycled grocery bags that are in good shape. Also, if you receive the newspaper and want to recycle the bag it comes in, they will gladly accept them as well. Egg cartons are always needed.

The Homeless Ministry needs canned pasta and beans as well as soft-chew multi-grain bars. Please be sure cans are flip top, as they do not have can openers.

Donations to St. Anne's Closet

We are once again experiencing a lot of donations being left in front of St. Anne's closet during off hours. Please DO NOT leave bags or boxes in front of the closet. The area has a lot of critters and insects that get into the bags, not to mention people/kids walking by and opening up the bags. Anything left outside the closet will be put into the dumpster to prevent having any bugs brought into the closet and preventing infestation issues. If you would like to donate items, please bring them to the parish office during regular office hours or to the closet when they are OPEN. We appreciate the donations, but we need to be diligent to prevent any issues that could impact the closet negatively.
